Our website may be new, but nothing has changed at Gold Coast OMS. We are still the same caring, friendly and reliable practice you are used to working with. We will continue to take the utmost care when looking after your patients.

Take a scroll through our website and let us know what you think! We really value your feedback too, so if you have any suggestions for improvement or feedback on the site in general please send them through to: admin@goldcoastoms.com.au
